

War And Love

The Rev. David R. Graham
Adwaita Hermitage
18MAY13

The constants of war are the constants of life because, as Heraclitus observes, "War is the father of all things." The mother of all things, I suppose, is love. So there you have it, war and love, the universal constants, appearing as emotion, chance, and reason, von Clausewitz's "Trinity."

AMDG