Swami Bhagavan Sri Sathya Sai Baba

The Coloring Books from Adwaita Hermitage began as pictures Mary drew for the children to color. These were duly dolled up, displayed on the wall or refrigerator and then tossed out.

However, Mary is an artist and the children, from early years, did extraordinary work. So we decided to archive Mary's originals and let the children color photocopies of these. This procedure had a number of benefits. Favorite drawing could be re-colored by one artist or colored by another at any time. And, over time, collections of Mary's work could be shared with other parents and their children. That is the background of the Coloring Books available here.

Eventually, all of us were coloring Mary's drawings and, from time to time, each of us still does. They are that much fun. Worthy finished paintings we laminate and keep for sharing electronically or as slides.

Mary's wonderful collection of drawings to color is available now, arranged thematically, in the following zip files. The drawings are in PDF format. We hope you enjoy them as much as we do.

The drawings and Books are Swami Domain by Mary Graham and may not be republished for profit or sold in any way for any purpose. They are a gift freely given for the enjoyment and uplift of our brothers and sisters so there is no need to receive permission for use or to reference Mary or Adwaitha Hermitage.
