

THEOLOGICAL GEOGRAPHY

July 19, 2009

Millennium Bridge
Glasgow, Scotland

Feeling Dirty

By The Rev. David R. Graham

Americans dislike the madness they allowed and voted to overwhelm them mostly because it is filthy and makes them feel dirty. It makes their skin crawl, and their hearts as well.

Americans are clean people. As a nation they embody purity. They hate dirty people and filth generally.

Then they allowed the dirtiest possible people on the face of the earth to dominate them .

They have none to blame but themselves, no excuse beyond their own colossal stupidity.

Now the filth Americans allowed they must allow to run its course. Its stench could not be higher. And their suffering will be beyond description, beyond anything they thought imaginable. They will be tearing their shirts, rending their dresses in the agony of bereavement over the lives they gave up ... for a delusion.

“The world,” we were told, “hates us Americans.”

No, the world respected and loved America and Americans but now does not know whether to weep or to laugh over their empowerment of individuals every sane person knew are consumed by the filth of envy, true Alinsky operators.

Great battles, great suffering and great bloodshed are in the offing.

Americans are feeling dirty inside and out, and should. They “done it.”

Americans are struggling now to get clean and they will get there through severe, prolonged fighting. This will assist their efforts. Enemies of the United States have laid hands on the mechanisms of the government of the United State.

Feeling Dirty

By The Rev. David R.. Graham

Loka Samastha Sukhino Bhavanthu

Loka Samastha Sukhino Bhavanthu

Loka Samastha Sukhino Bhavanthu

Comments

Loka Samastha Sukhino Bhavanthu

Loka Samastha Sukhino Bhavanthu

Loka Samastha Sukhino Bhavanthu

Sophia Villani
Scicolone

