

THEOLOGICAL GEOGRAPHY

July 19, 2009

Wishart Arch, Dundee, Scotland
Wishart Arch is the sole surviving section around a gateway of the old city wall of Dundee, Scotland. It is called East Port or Cowgate.

Should-a Could-a

By The Rev. David R. Graham

Were stewards of her welfare responsible regarding the threat of The Muslim Brotherhood and its military arms, the United States would be on total war footing and closing with al Qa'ida, Hamas and the Iranian Ayatollahs since 1979 at the latest. Likewise would be all nations founded for freedom, peace and justice.

And the job of destroying these recrudescences of evil would have been seen through to completion, which means total, 100% victory.

That this did not happen says that the government of the United States has been overrun by stupidity and traitors at least since the 1920s.

I recall with vividity the instant and the place where I heard the news of the Ayatollahs' usurpation of the government of Persia.

I was walking out of the barn of Walnut Wood Farm, the thoroughbred farm in Hemet, CA that was owned by Maxine Factor. Just before I exited the barn on my way elsewhere, the farm manager, Bob Rowley, USAF LTC (R) bomber pilot (B-47s), came from his house to tell me the news. I said, "Really? They will have to thrown out!"

I was awe-struck at the enormity of the threat to civilization signified by this event in Iran. I sensed immediately its world-wide dire tidings.

I recall with vividity the instant and the place where I heard the news of al Qa-ida's first burst into the upper floors of the World Trade Center. Christiana Graham, in whose house I grew up, called on the phone to tell me to turn on the TV because a plane just flew into the World Trade Center. "How could that happen?" she said, aghast. I

Should-a Could-a

By The Rev. David R. Graham

you and everyone like you, because you are fucking stupid about facing the facts of life.”

I knew before hearing who did it and why because two days before I had seen in my mind’s eye, while driving towards Seattle across the SR 520 Floating Bridge, a plane flying into a skyscraper and had been thinking for some time that those bearing responsibility for stewardship of the welfare of the United States were not paying enough attention to world-wide Mohammedan rampancy. That sight in my mind’s eye on 09SEP01 impressed me as a brilliant form of attack on an industrialized nation.

Facts are stubborn things; and whatever may be our wishes, our inclinations, the dictates of our passions, they cannot alter the state of facts and evidence.
John Adams

Comments

