

THEOLOGICAL GEOGRAPHY

January 9, 2010

The Craigellachie Bridge is a cast iron arch bridge located in Speyside, Moray, Scotland at Craigellachie which is near to the village of Aberlour. It was designed by the renowned civil engineer Thomas Telford and built from 1812-1814.

Sound And Reality

By The Rev. David R. Graham

Sound does not exist unless it is made, created each moment it exists.

Analogously, reality does not exist unless it is made, created each moment it exists.

Reality - which is sound self-realized - like sound, is made, created each moment it exists.

If it is not made, not created, reality does not exist.

God is whoever and whatever makes sound, makes reality, makes existence.

Eadem Mutata Resurgo

Jakob Bernoulli (1654-1705)

Comments

